

What is place-based information?

Place-based information has a geographical position, and emphasizes the characteristics and meaning of places as a fundamental starting point.