

Why does the error say i do not have the required role to access the search/product?

Your login will be one of three different types of roles - Guest, Registered, or Billing Account. Land Enquiry Services uses roles to determine what products you can buy, what information you can see, and what types of searches you can perform. For more information about roles and increasing your access, refer to the Land Enquiry Services information page.