

How do I know who is logged in?

At the top right corner, there is a grey box that will contain either 'Guest User' if you have chosen to use the application as a Guest, or it will note the name of the user who has logged in with their Landgate Login. If your Landgate Login is joined to a Billing Account, you will also see the account number to ensure you have selected the correct account before incurring charges.