

When using the Shopping cart it continually asks me for my contact number is there a way around this?

Landgate is working on a way to automatically add the phone number associated with your Landgate login. In the meantime, you'll need to type it in when completing your order details.