

How long is the Accelerator Program?

The SPUR location technology accelerator program has two components:

1. Information session will be scheduled between 16 and 27 November 2020, up to four team members can attend the sessions, in understanding WA Government data and working with WA Government.
2. A six-month access period during which successful applicants have access to WA Government geospatial expertise to advance your project.