

Why is it only those using land and property location data that are eligible for the Program?

Landgate and our partners work with and utilise location data on a day-to-day basis.

Therefore, the grant program is strategically aligned to support Western Australian businesses that are finding new ways to use location data.