Change Name following Marriage
A guide to preparing the documents
Preventing an Application to Change Name Following Marriage

This step-by-step guide is designed to show you how to prepare and lodge an application to change a name on a title following a marriage.

If you are completing the forms yourself, we advise you to exercise care as the documents involved are legally binding. A competent professional, such as a solicitor or settlement agent, should always be considered when preparing any land transaction document.

It is important to read through the whole of this information guide. Being familiar with the information provided will assist if you need to contact Landgate to clarify any part of the process. Useful contacts are listed on the back page.

What you should know about Certificate of Title

Certificate of Title, otherwise known as Title Deeds, are issued by Landgate with one original and the option to have a duplicate title issued. Original titles are always kept at Landgate. The duplicate title (if issued) would usually be kept by the proprietor/owner or by a lending institution as security for a loan.

Many lending institutions request the non-issue of a duplicate title when they register a mortgage. This means that when a property is under mortgage, there is a possibility that a duplicate title has not been issued.

Where a duplicate title has not been issued, the original title would include a note in the statements section indicating the non-issue of the duplicate title. The note in the statements section would be shown as ‘DUPLICATE CERTIFICATE OF TITLE NOT ISSUED AS REQUESTED BY DEALING M149404’.

There are important differences between the original title and the duplicate title. The duplicate title does not show all limitations and encumbrances. For example, caveats, notifications, memorials and property seizure and sale orders are only shown on the original title held by Landgate and not on the duplicate title.

It is recommended that a copy of the original Certificate of Title be obtained from Landgate, to assist in completing the application form and statutory declaration. We commonly refer to this as a ‘title search’. A title search will show if a title has been issued or is non-issue and will show the spelling of the names of the registered proprietors/owners.

For a fee, you can conduct a title search and obtain a copy of a Certificate of Title.

What do I need for my application?

- Title Search (recommended) – used to complete the application form
- Forms – Application form A5 and Statutory Declaration form B3
- Certified copy of the marriage certificate issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages in WA (or equivalent if outside of WA). A copy certified by Australia Post is also acceptable. NOTE: a celebrant’s marriage certificate or a copy of a marriage certificate certified by a solicitor, Justice of the Peace, an accountant or any other qualified person is not acceptable as evidence for the change of name application.
- Duplicate Certificate of Title (if issued)
- Registration fees payable to Landgate
Title Search – a copy of the current Original Certificate of Title

A title search is optional, however highly recommended, as the search provides you with a complete up-to-date copy of the title at the date and time the title search is conducted.

For a fee, you can conduct a title search online using an address and order a copy of a Certificate of Title.

An Application Form A5 and a Statutory Declaration Form B3

The Application form A5 and the Statutory Declaration from B3 are available from a Landgate office, or online from the Landgate website.

Please note that only original signed forms can be lodged for registration and all forms must be printed on white A4 size paper in duplex style, so both sides of the paper are printed upon.

Certified copy of the marriage certificate issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages in WA (or equivalent if outside of WA)

A certified copy of the marriage certificate is required to be produced as evidence of the change of name application. The certified copy of the certificate must be issued and certified by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages in WA (or equivalent office if outside of WA).

The certified copy of the marriage certificate issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages may be certified as a true copy by Australia Post, however there is a fee payable for this service. Where the marriage certificate has been certified by Australia Post, the Australia Post certified copy can be provided to Landgate in lieu of the certified copy issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages. Note: the originally signed Australia Post certified copy must be provided to Landgate.

NOTE: a celebrant’s marriage certificate or a copy of a marriage certificate certified by a solicitor, Justice of the Peace, an accountant or any other qualified person is not acceptable as evidence for the change of name application.

The Duplicate Certificate of Title

- If issued and there is no mortgage on the property, the hard copy duplicate title must be produced with the application document. NOTE: A photocopy or a copy certified by a Justice of the Peace or a similarly qualified person is not acceptable for registration purposes.

- If issued and the property is under mortgage the financier holding the mortgage will need to produce the duplicate title to Landgate prior to the lodgement of the application document. There is an additional registration fee known as a production fee, payable to Landgate when the duplicate title is produced separately from the application.

- If the status of the duplicate title is non-issue and the property is under mortgage then an original signed letter of consent from the financier authorising the registration of the application to change name is required. The original signed letter must be lodged with the application document.

- If the status of the duplicate title is non-issue and the property is not under mortgage, then the original signed application document, together with relevant evidence is all that is required to be lodged with Landgate.

Registration Fees

View the current Registration and Search Fees that can be paid by cash, credit card, EFTPOS, or by cheque/money order made payable to Landgate. Fees must be paid when lodging the document in person or included if posting the documents to Landgate.
Steps to lodging the application

1. Complete the application and statutory declaration forms by using the title search. Type or print legibly in dark ink (preferably black) to complete the application and statutory declaration forms, using the examples in this guide to assist you.

2. Ensure a certified copy of the marriage certificate issued and certified by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages in WA is provided as evidence with the application and statutory declaration. A copy certified by Australia Post is also acceptable.

   NOTE: a celebrant’s marriage certificate or a copy of a marriage certificate certified by a solicitor, Justice of the Peace, an accountant or any other qualified person is not acceptable as evidence for the change of name application.

3. If the property is subject to a mortgage, ensure the Duplicate Certificate of Title (if issued) has been produced to Landgate by the financier; or you have obtained an original signed letter of consent from the lender (if the Duplicate Certificate of Title has not been issued).

4. Lodge the original signed forms, certified copy of the marriage certificate (issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages in WA) and the duplicate title (where applicable) with Landgate ensuring the registration fee payment is enclosed if lodging by post.

   - In person at one of Landgate’s lodgement offices. NOTE: any person can lodge the application document with Landgate; the lodging party does not need to be one of the persons named in the application document.

   - By post to:

     Landgate Document Lodgement Section

     PO Box 2222

     MIDLAND WA 6936

   NOTE: Duplicate Certificate of Title and original evidence being returned by post will be posted in the normal mail. If you wish to have the duplicate title and/or original evidence returned by registered post, you will need to provide a self-addressed, pre-paid registered post envelope to Landgate with the application document.
